

1.1 ROLE AND AUTHORITY

It is the policy of the agency to provide every employee with written descriptions of:

- Their role and authority under the law
- An understanding of the civil rights of individuals
- A code of conduct governing their actions
- Ethics training
- Their authority to carry and use firearms
- Their legal authority to detain citizens

Knowledge/Awareness:

Employees will signify their knowledge of the policies and their content by providing written, signed documentation to be filed in their training file.

Proficiency:

Annually, each member of the agency will review the policies.

Compliance:

Violations of the policies will be documented in the employees file.
